

PRESS RELEASE

IS.Teledata AG Operates Derivative Web Sites of Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein

Frankfurt, February 12, 2004 – Since December 2003, IS.Teledata AG operates now also the derivative web sites of Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein, the investment bank of Dresdner Dank AG. Regardless if private investors seek information about certificates, warrants or special products, the sites at www.warrants.dresdner.com and www.zertifikate.dresdner.com offer free access to a wide range of real-time quotes and background information for issues of Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein.

Comfortable search functions enable users of the relaunched online service to quickly search for specific warrants and certificates. Comparisons track the development of individual instruments. A virtual portfolio and a watch list, constantly updated with push technology, support the Internet-based management of assets.

The derivative pages of Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein are operated at the Cologne computer centre of IS.Teledata AG. Warrants and derivative data are transmitted using a leased line to be displayed in real-time.

"Competitive pricing, service orientation and the flexibility of the systems have convinced us to select IS.Teledata AG as the external service provider," explains Stephan Rothermel, Head of Market Data Services at Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein. "The revised site meets the requirements of our customers for a reliable supply with quote data and easy-to-use financial applications."
